

Pilot Phase - Expression of Interest Form

Water Stewardship Program - Sydney Drinking Water Catchments

Please submit your completed EOI form as a PDF attachment to: wsp.sdwc@mullooninsitute.org

A Mulloon Institute staff member will contact you to discuss your project.

For multi-landholder projects (these are encouraged), please fill out an EOI form for each property or landholder.

Date:
Contact information:
Name:
Phone:		Email:
Property details:
Property Name:
Street Address:
Property Size (ha):
Lot and DP Numbers:
Property Boundary:	Please attach a google earth screenshot, KML file or a property map indicating boundary
Current land use or enterprise information.	Please include number of stock and type
Intended future land use or enterprises planned.
Please indicate key concerns or issues on your property. Tick any relevant boxes.	<input type="checkbox"/> Erosion <input type="checkbox"/> Drought resilience / water reliability <input type="checkbox"/> Flooding <input type="checkbox"/> Water quality <input type="checkbox"/> Ground cover / productivity <input type="checkbox"/> Invasive species / weeds <input type="checkbox"/> Riparian vegetation <input type="checkbox"/> Soil health <input type="checkbox"/> Grazing management <input type="checkbox"/> Other:

Please describe key concerns or issues on your property.
Please name and describe the main waterways (gullies, creeks, streams, rivers) on your property:
Please describe a specific project area or idea you would like to work on (if any):
Are you willing to host community engagement activities on your property (such as field walks and workshops).	Yes / No
Is this part of a cooperative project (e.g. with neighbours, other landholders in your catchment area), or is there the potential for it to become one?	Yes / No